PITTSBURG BANK CLOSES DOORS

Allegheny National Bank in Hands of the Comptroller

CASHIER IS IN JAIL

Treasury Department Takes Action After Conference—Private and Commercial Deposits are Small

TO HAVE OPENED ON MONDAY

Pittsburg, May 17.—It is officially announced tonight that the Allegheny National Bank, whose former cashier, William Montgomery, is in jail specifically charged with the misappropriation of $594,000, while officers of the bank and of the Treasury Department are trying to fathom still larger apparent discrepancies in the bank's funds, will not reopen for business tomorrow.

Instead a notice on the door will announce: "Comptroller of the Currency has taken charge and will close up the affairs of the bank."

Until late today it had been expected that Examiner William L. Folds, who discovered the alleged peculations and made the charges against Montgomery and by the officers and directors of the bank that the institution would weather the storm and be able to continue business. To this end a number of strong financial institutions and prominent capitalists of the city offered assistance and provided $250,000 cash while the directors provided a like amount to meet the immediate needs or provide for possible emergencies.

At the same time a complete reorganization was decided upon and a new cashier and other officers were virtually agreed upon. A hitch occurred in these plans yesterday and all of today was spent in conferences attended by Examiner Folds, representing the Treasury Department, the bank's directors and financiers who had proffered aid. After a careful review of the situation suspension of the bank was decided upon as the only logical course, but this decision was scarcely announced until a new ray of hope appeared. The announcement was withdrawn and the conference re-convened to discuss the new suggestion for continuing business. Finally, however, it was agreed to stand by the earlier decision and to liquidate.

Mrs. Richard Packer

More than one circumstance makes the death of Mrs Richard Packer, on Nittany Mountain, an unusually sad one. Death came to the painfully simple Packer home Friday of last week, and interment was made Monday, at Pleasant Gap, Rev. David Sowers, of the Methodist church, officiating.

About a week previous to her death, Mrs. Packer, aged about thirty-seven years, gave birth to her sixteenth child, and with the baby just born, the thirteen surviving children have become motherless.

Before her marriage Mrs. Packer was Catharine Mallory, daughter of Aaron Mallory. She is said to have been a little woman of sunny, cheerful disposition, and scant living and dire want were never regarded as an affliction by her.

The overseers of Spring township provided for the woman's burial, and citizens of Pleasant Gap, headed by the Noll Brothers, clad the little children so they could witness the interment of their mother.

Harry Casper

Harry Casper, son of Henry Casper, who resides on Halfmoon Hill, died at the Bellefonte hospital Thursday morning after a lingering illness. The young man had been in ill health for several years but recently was taken much worse and on Monday was admitted to the hospital for treatment. Everything possible was done for him, and death was due to rheumatism of the heart and kidney trouble.

The deceased would have been twenty years of age had he lived until June 20. Surviving him are his father, Henry Casper and one brother. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Episcopal church and the services were conducted by his pastor.

EPWORTH LEAGUE ANNIVERSARY.

Young Peoples' Society Celebrates Nineteenth Year of its Organization

Sunday was a gala day with the Bellefonte Chapter Epworth League, being the Nineteenth anniversary of the amalgamation of the various young peoples societies affiliated with the Methodist Episcopal church into one great body. This formal organization took place in Cleveland nineteen years ago and since that time the League has had a wonderful growth and an incalculable amount of good has been accomplished.

The services lasted throughout the entire day and began in the morning with the Morning Watch prayer and praise service at 6 o'clock. This was a very helpful and inspiring meeting and was conducted by the president Miss Grace Blackford. At 10:30 o'clock in the forenoon the pastor preached a very able sermon to the people from the text, "Covet earnesly the best gifts." (part of I Cor. 12:31) In this sermon Rev. Stein called their attention to the high ideals of the church and the league and urged his hearers to aspire only for those things which are uplifting and for the bettering of mankind. Each person who attended the service was decorated with the official colors of the Epworth League, a small white ribbon with a narrow red stripe traversing the centre.

The anniversary services proper were held in the evening and the following program was carried out:

Organ voluntary.
Hymn—"Onward Christian Soldiers."
Prayer by C. C. Shuey.
Hymn—"Battle Hymn."
Scripture. Read by Miss Blackford.
Gloria.
Offering.
Solo—Mrs. Waddle.
Paper—"What is the Epworth League', S. A. Keefer.
Paper—"Bible Study," Miss Mary Grimm.
Paper—"Comrades of the Morning Watch." Clair Seibert.
President's Report, Miss Grace Blackford.
Solo—Henry D. Brown.
Canvass for the "Epworth Herald."
Installation of Officers.
Consecration Hymn and Prayer.
Doxology and Benediction.

These services were very interesting and the singing was of a high order. The papers by the several members were in the interest of the work of the League and their reading was listened to attentively, and especially by those who do not attend the devotional meetings of the chapter. At the morning and evening services a number of subscriptions were received for the Epworth Herald, the official paper for this young peoples' society. The cabinet as installed Sunday evening is composed of energetic and zealous young people and the prospects are that the Bellefonte League will have another prosperous year and one filled with good works.

The Castanea Fire.

Since the news of the fire at Castanea was published in this paper a more detailed report has been received. While it was at first supposed that the fire originated from an exploding lamp this fact is not certain. The occupants of the house at the time of the fire were Joseph Renzo, his wife and five children, Michael Perri, a brother of Mrs. Renzo, and Pasquale Bonadio, a boarder.

Pasquale Bonadio, a married man with several children in Italy, and Angelo Renzo, the 6-year-old son of Joseph Renzo, were burned to death in the firey furnace, only a few of their charred bones being found when the ashes were cleared away. Others of the occupants had very narrow escapes from being burned to death. One of the Renzo children, which was taken to the hospital, died a little later in that institution.

Knights Templer Conclave.

The annual state conclave of the Pennsylvania Knights Templer will be held in Erie on May 26th and 27th and practically every commandery in the state will be present. The Constance Commandery of Bellefonte will not go in a body and have been invited by the Hospitaller Commandery of Lock Haven to join them in a special train which will leave Lock Haven on Monday May 25th at 11.18 a. m. Luncheon will be provided on the train. The round trip fare from Lock Haven will be $8.95. The Hospitaller Commandery has secured a good band and expects to have a large number in line in the parade at Erie. Information will be given by the Hospitaller Commandery to any Sir Knights who ask it.

FOUND DEAD IN CREEK

Edward Shoff of Madera Meets Death in a Mysterious Way

WAS GONE THREE WEEKS

Finding of the Dead Man's Body Created Much Excitement in Philipsburg Monday Afternoon.

WAS LAST SEEN ON FIRST OF MAY

The following account of the mysterious disappearance of Ed. Shoff, of Madera, and the finding of the body is taken from Monday's Philipsburg Journal:

Great excitement was created this afternoon between one and two o'clock, when the report was circulated in the streets that the dead body of a man was found lying in the Moshannon Creek, at the Presqueisle street bridge. The body was first discovered by John Redding and another boy named Gennig, who were playing near the spot with a dog. The boy notified William Turner, who with the assistance of others, soon rescued the body from the creek. B. J. LaPorte and Burgess Stein were also notified. After viewing the body, which was in a terribly decayed and muddy condition, it was recognized by a number of people who knew him as that of Ed. Shoff, of Madera. On the evening of May 1st., at about 7 o'clock, Shoff appeared before Squire LaPorte, in a law suit in which he was interested. That was the last seen of him until his body was found today. At that time he had been drinking some, and in addition to having about $15.00 in his pockets, he had just donned a new suit of clothes, shoes, etc. He wore glasses and they were still intact when found. Whether he accidently fell from the bridge or met with foul play will probably never be known by any one. Shoff was a single man, aged about forty-years, and leaves a father and mother and brothers and sisters living at Madera. His relatives were immediately telephoned for and will be here this evening, when an inquest will be held. In the meantime his body was given over to Haworth Brothers, undertakers. Shoff was pretty well known in Philipsburg, having been employed at Hoover & Washburn's saw mill, but of late at the Harris saw mill, near Black Bear, having boarded at the Farmer's hotel.

Miss Nancy Newell.

Miss Nancy Newell, who for the past five years has been making her home with her niece Mrs. Robert Cole on East High street, died Sunday morning shortly before 9 o'clock of infirmities incident to old age. Miss Newell was the daughter of Joseph and Margaret Newell and was born in Harris township about 80 years ago. For about 40 years she resided with her sister Mrs. Joseph Miles on Bishop street. About 5 years ago when they become too old to keep house for themselves they were taken to the home of their niece where Mrs. Miles died soon afterwards. For the past year and ten months Miss Newell has been almost blind and helpless and was confined to her bed. During this time she has been tenderly cared for by Mrs. Cole.

Miss Newell is the last member of the family. For years she had been a member of the Presbyterian church and abounded in good works. Her christian life was an example for holy living to all with whom she associated. She was a woman of a very kind disposition, her friends being among both the rich and the poor, the high and the low, and her death will be greatly mourned by all who knew her.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Cole home on East High street and services were in charge of Rev. J. Allison Platte, her pastor. Interment was made in the Union cemetery.

K. G. E. Attended Services.

The Bellefonte Castle No. 357 Knights of the Golden Eagle attended divine services at the United Brethern church Sunday forenoon at 10.30 o'clock. The Knights assembled at their hall and marched to the church in a body and were in uniform. The sermon was preached by the pastor Rev. D. Barshinger. It was an eloquent and inspiring discourse and full of interest to the members of that organization.

THE SONS OF VETERANS.

Program of Annual Encampment to be Held at Williamsport.

The twenty-eighth annual encampment of the Pennsylvania division of the Sons of Veterans, U. S. A. will be held at Williamsport during the week, beginning June 8th 1908. It will be an affair of far more than ordinary import since preparations are being made to have this the largest and most imposing encampment ever held by this meritorious organization.

The camp will open on Sunday, June 7th at 2 p. m. with religious services, conducted by Chaplain Kelley, Camp 44 of Williamsport.

Tuesday afternoon the sham battle takes place, in which several thousand of the Reserves will participate, as well as the four companies of N. G. P., located at Williamsport. Twenty thousand rounds of shells will be fired off in this battle.

Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock the monster parade will start and the route covers all the principal streets of Williamsport. Besides the numerous bands there will be at least 3,000 men and 150 horses in the line of parade which will make it a spectacle worth seeing, equal to the sham battle on Tuesday afternoon.

The civic branch of the organization will be in session all day Wednesday, Thursday forenoon as well as part of Friday. The various local committees are highly enthusiastic in their efforts to make this the grandest affair ever seen in Williamsport, and all indications point to the fact that they will be highly successful. From what has been learned so far there will be from 30,000 to 40,000 visitors in Williamsport on each of the sham battle and parade days.

Automobile rides over the Grampian hills and along the level expanse for miles in and out about the city; grand military balls; steam boat rides on the beautiful Susquehanna between Williamsport, and Sylvan Dell park, five miles east of Williamsport, as well as between the city and Nippono park, twelve miles west of Williamsport and many other amusements are on the week's program.

The encampment adjoins one of the handsomest sections of Williamsport and will be complete in all its appointments. The grounds are admirably located on a beautiful, level expanse; boarded on the west by the golf links of the Country Clubs, Athletic park, where the Tri-State ball games will be played every day of the encampment, adjoins the eastern side of the grounds. Immediately to the north lies the beautiful park, summer theatre and dancing pavillion, known as Vallamont, while directly south of the camp lies the parade grounds, as level as a floor. Adjacent to the northwestern corner of the camp is a large grove of shade trees.

Williamsport extends its arms in open hospitality to all the Sons of Veterans, Grand Army men and all their friends from all over Pennsylvania to this the grandest encampment the Sons of Veterans ever had in this or any other state of the Union.

Diocese has Large Growth.

The announcement of Bishop Darlington that Harrisburg is to become the See of the diocese and that he will no longer spend a part of his time in Williamsport, settles a point that has been under consideration in the Episcopal diocese ever since creation. Williamsport was anxious to have the bishop retain his summer residence in that city, but a majority of the people of the diocese favored Harrisburg as the See and the bishop was governed by the sentiment of the majority.

The diocese of Harrisburg was organized in 1904 and since that time has had a remarkable growth. It is composed of twenty-four counties and its boundaries are the New York state line on the north, Lancaster city on the east, Maryland state line on the south and Altoona on the west. The counties which compose it are Potter, Tioga, Clinton, Lycoming, Sullivan, Centre, Union, Northampton, Montour, Columbia, Blair, Huntingdon, Mifflin, Snyder, Juniata, Perry, Cumberland, Dauphin, Bedford, Fulton, Franklin, Adams, York and Lancaster.

At the foundation of the diocese there were but 53 clergymen in the district. In three years the number has been increased about 45 per cent, and now numbers 78. There are 83 parishes and missions in the diocese and some of the clergy have from three to five parishes to look after.

BULLETS FLY IN CLEVELAND

Deputies and Mob Have Clash and Several are Shot

CHILD WAS KILLED.

In the Excitement its Head Was Carried Home and the Body Rushed to the Morgue.

CAR IS SET ON FIRE AND BURNED.

Cleveland, May 19th.—Rioting in the street car strike began this evening early. Several men were shot and wounded in a conflict between strikers and deputy sheriffs in Lakewood, a suburb. Charles Marvin, striker was shot through the hand; two others were seriously wounded.

Non-union men protected by deputy sheriffs started a car over Lakewood boulevard. At Sloan avenue a big beam across the track stopped the car. A crowd had collected and it is reported that many shots were fired by both sides. More cars came along and the shooting continued.

Police in automobiles rushed to the scene and a running encounter with the mob occurred. The first car was set afire and burned

In East Wooland avenue a car ran down a girl. She was decapitated. The gathering crowd attacked the motorman and conductor. The police on the car beat the crowd back. In the confussion it is said the girl's head was hurried to her home while an ambulance took the body to a morgue.

The state arbitrators took up their task of endeavoring to effect a reconciliation between the strikers and the Municipal Traction Company early tonight and remained in session several hours.

While the car service was slightly improved today the general situation appeared so serious tonight that possibilities of a speedy settlement now are regarded as somewhat remote.

The members of the car men's union began a series of public meetings for the purpose of arousing public sympathy and to appeal to the public to refrain from using the cars until the strike finally is settled.

Bernard McClain.

The community was shocked on Sunday to learn of the sudden death of Bernard Mclain which occurred Saturday afternoon about 2 o'clock. He had been ill for a few days and his death was due to heart failure. Deceased was employed as a traveling salesman by a large mercantile firm and had been following his business when he taken ill at Greensburg where he died.

Bernard McClain was born at State College March 25th 1859, and was aged a little over 49 years Since 1861 he has been a resident of Bellefonte. He was a member of the St. John's Roman Catholic church of Bellefonte. Deceased was well known among business men wherever he traveled and had many friends who will be grieved to hear of his death.

Surviving him are his aged mother, Mrs. Nora McClain who resides on Allegheny street; and two brothers James A. McClain of Spangler, and Frank McClain of Bellefonte.

The remains were brought to Bellefonte Sunday evening and taken to the home of his aged mother. Mrs. McClain was a short time ago bereaved of her daughter and this death comes as an added affliction. Funeral was held Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the residence of the mother and were in charge of Rev. Father P. McArdle. Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery.

Editor Stopped at Garman House.

The following is the way W. T. Bain, editor of the Philipsburg Daily Journal, speaks of one of Bellefonte's hotels:

While at Bellefonte the early part of this week serving our country as a juryman, along with several other Philipsburgers we put up at the Garman House. This well known hotel is again in charge of Al. Garman, a thoroughly practical man at the business, who personally sees that his guests are given every possible comfort and that they lack for nothing good to eat. Al. is making some noted improvements to the property, and will see that the hotel is always up-to-date while under his control.

LAMP EXPLSION BURNED FIVE

Italian House Near Castanea Destroyed by Fire Thursday Night.

NO TIME TO ESCAPE.

Entire Household was Taken to Hospital; It is Thought Two Children Will Not Survive

THE HOUSE WAS A COMPLETE LOSS

Lock Haven. May 15th.—Two children were perhaps fatally burned and three other persons seriously injured in a fire that damaged the house of Joseph Morenzo, an Italian. at Castanea two miles here. Thursday night 10 o'clock.

The family consisted of Morenzo. his wife, her brother-in-law. a baby, three years old, and a boy, aged eleven.

Morenzo, his wife and the boarders were seated in a lower room, while the children were asleep in an upstairs apartment.

In some manner a lighted lamp in the room exploded and in an instant the room was ablaze.

Every effort was made by the older members of the family to reach the sleepinging children before the flames could do their cruel work, and in the brave rescue all three were badly burned.

An alarm was sent to the fire department here, and a bucket brigade formed at Castanea residents, but despite every effort the house was a complete loss.

Morenzo, his wife, the boarder and the two children were taken to the Lock Haven hospital. An examination showed that the baby was fatally burned, but hopes are held for the recovery of the son.

CASTORIA.
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. The Kind You Have Always Bought

Postal to End Strikes.

The Postal Telegraph and Cable company has taken a step which it believes will do away with any possibilty of strikes by its men in the future. In fact, the company and men have formed a union together and goes without saying that it will be independent of any other union. The company and the men will work more closely together than ever before.

The union is known as the Postal Telegraph Employes' Association. As soon as a man is employed regularly by the company he can become a member of the association and if he should get sick the next day he will be entitled to draw benfits. This plan has the sanction of the company, who in fact originated it. Under the pension system a man had to be an employe for 15 years before he could become a beneficiary of the protective system. Benefits are proportioned in accordance with the pay of the men.

Words of Praise

For the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed, as given by leaders in all the several schools of medicine, should have far more weight than any amount of non-professional testimonials. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has THE BADGE OF HONESTY on every bottle-wrapper, in a full list of all its ingredients printed in plain English.

If you are an invalid woman and suffer from frequent headache, backache, gnawing distress in stomach, periodical pains, disagreeable, catarrhal, pelvic drain, dragging-down distress in lower abdomen or pelvis, perhaps dark spots or specks dancing before the eyes, faint spells and kindred symptoms caused by female weakness, or other derangement of the feminine organs, you can not do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The hospital, surgeon's knife and operating table may be avoided by the timely use of "Favorite Prescription" in such cases. Thereby the obnoxious examinations and local treatments of the family physician can be avoided and a thorough course of successful treatment carried out in the privacy of the home. "Favorite Prescription" is composed of the very best native medicinal roots known to medical science for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments, contains no alcohol and no harmful or habit-forming drugs.

Do not expect too much from "Favorite Prescription;" it will not perform miracles; it will not disolve or cure tumors. No medicine will. It will do as much to establish vigorous health in most weaknesses and ailments peculiarly incident to women as any medicine can. It must be given a fair chance by perseverance in its use for a reasonable length of time.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this remedy of known composition.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is guarded as sacredly secret and womanly confidences are protected by professional privacy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the best laxative and regulator of the bowels. They invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. One a laxative; two or three a cathartic. Easy to take as candy.

A NOTABLE GATHERING

Important Gathering of Governors of State at the White House

RESOURCES OF NATION

Questions of National Interest Were Discussed by President and Many Other Prominent Men.

BRYAN AND CARNEGIE WERE THERE

Washington, May 13.—The white house was the scene today of the assemblage of many of the most distinguished figures in the political and industrial life of the nation. It was, perhaps, one of the most notable gatherings that has ever met to consider a great public question in that historic mansion.

The occasion was the conference by President Roosevelt with the governors of nearly all the states and territories to consider the broad question of conservation of the country's natural resources. The conference will continue through Friday.

The men who knew how the natural resources of the country have been wasted captains of industry who have dealt with the resources and experts who have studied the conditions—told of the nation's prodigality in the exploitation and consumption of its natural resources.

Representing the government was the president of the United States, the vice president, the cabinet, justices of the United States supreme court and members of both houses of congress. The states were represented by their chief executives and the conferees appointed by them. The industries were represented by Andrew Carnegie, the ironmaster; James J. Hill, the genius of railway expansion; John Mitchell, the labor leader, and Dr. I. C. White, state geologist of West Virginia, and perhaps the leading expert on coal in the United States.

The specially invited guests included three democratic presidential candidates —William J. Bryan, Judge George Gray, of Delaware, and Governor John A. Johnson, of Minnesota.

The subjects to be considered include the use and conservation of mineral resources of the land and resources of the waters.

The conference is the outgrowth of the recommendation of the inland waterways convention to President Roosevelt. The idea of such a gathering met with the president's enthusiastic approval. Later President Roosevelt made public a letter inviting the governors of the states to attend the conference. In this communication the president declared that there is no other question now before the nation of equal gravity with the conservation of the country's natural resources.

Woman Kills a Wild Cat.

After a desperate struggle on the gloomy road that leads through Pine Swamp hollow, three miles south of Danville, Mrs. Jeremiah Altwater Tuesday night slew, single-handed, a large wild cat that had been terrifying the neighborhood.

Mrs. Altwater was returning from the bedside of a sick friend when suddenly the cat sprang on her back. She grasped the beast just behind the ears and tore its claws from her dress and dashed it to the ground with all the strength she possessed.

The big cat was up again in a twinkling, and clawed Mrs. Altwater severely before she secured a grasp on its neck and with the writhing animal literally tearing her flesh into ribbons, she dashed its head against a tree killing it.

Meeting of Brotherhood.

A meeting of the Brotherhood of the Methodist Episcopal church was held on Thursday for the purpose of furthering the work of organization. Heretofore the work of the Brotherhood has been confined chiefly to ushers and collectors and a hotel committee. It is intended that the scope of its actions be extended and that the members take up a more aggressive line of work. At the meeting Thursday evening the executive committee was authorized to appoint six committees for the various lines of work and a finance committee was also appointed. About fifteen new names were added to the roll and the membership now numbers about 52. During the summer months none of the newly planned work will be taken up, and at the first stated meeting in September it is the intention to have the Brotherhood in full working order.

At the close of the business session the young men present were invited to the lecture room of the church where the ladies of the Epworth League tendered them a reception. A very pleasant time was shown them in a social way and refreshments were served to the enjoyment of all. The program was an informal one and music was furnished at intervals. Rev. Stein acted as toastmaster and called upon a number of the young men who responded in a very able manner. The evening was thoroughly enjoyed by all present and at a seasonable hour they departed for their several homes.

So here's to our young Brotherhood,
And the ladies who served us so good,
In our ranks may we find many men,
And the ladies—may they receive us again.

Gardening at Panama.

Incidental to the work of digging the big ditch at Panama, the canal commission is bringing to light other possibilities for this tropical neck of land.

The latest of these is the raising of vegetables, the common, garden variety, such as grew in mother's back yard up here in the states. One of the forms of homesickness that prevails among the ditch diggers is a passionate longing for the good old string beans they used to have before they went to Panama, or the succulent cucumber, or the delicious fresh green pea.

In order to establish a supply of these delicacies and keep the workers from flocking back to the old home up north, Dr. Henry F. Schultz has established a garden of ten acres—which is shortly to be enlarged to fifteen—as an experimental station for the commission.

As a licensed horticulturist he has demonstrated that hereafter the canal workers can have tomatoes, egg plant, celery, lettuce, carrots, beans of all kinds, cucumbers, radishes and a lot of other things if they will merely take the trouble to cultivate them. Peas will probably have to be grafted on a native plant of the same family to grow well, but even that will be done if necessary. Next year experiments are to be made with melons. It is likely that even these will flourish.

Postoffice Ruling.

Information has reached the postoffice department of certain methods by which the postal laws in regard to mailable and unmailable merchandise on rural routes have been evaded. Rural carriers are permitted to deliver as express matter for hire, for patrons of their routes, unmailable merchandise and packages of mailable merchandise weighing in excess of four pounds. An example of the abuse of this privilege is that of a merchant who sent out by rural carriers as mail matter a pair of shoes, to which he added a bag of salt, to make the package overweight, and to avoid paying postage, so that the carrier might carry the package for him.

In view of such abuses, Fourth Assistant Postmaster General DeGraw has issued the following statement:

"All packages of merchandise to be sent out by rural carriers by merchants of the town should be presented at postoffices for inspection, and in case it is found that extraneous matter not ordered by the patrons has been added to any mailable matter or package for the purpose of making such package of matter unmailable, postmasters should refuse to permit the carriers to carry any such matters or package for the purpose of making mails, and rural carriers should not receive any mail matter from patrons as unmailable matter for hire which they suspect has been made unmailable by such devices as adopted by the merchant referred to."

An Occasion to Find Fault.

In the opinion of the Wilkes-Barre Record if all the State laws were strictly enforced many of the public ills with which we suffer would be greatly eradicated or greatly minimized. The legislature of 1907 enacted a measure, in response to a general demand. provided that all owners of dogs pay a license and have the dogs tagged. And yet how many owners of dogs have made any effort to comply with the law, simply because there has been no policy of enforcement. It was the intention through the license law to rid the state of many useless curs for which no one cares to pay a tax and which are the source of most of the danger from hydrophobia.

The liquor laws of the state are clear in their prohibition of Sunday selling, selling to minors and selling without license. Yet these statues are being monstrously violated. It has been stated that in Luzerne county there are nearly half as many speak-easies as there are licensed saloons. The saloons that keep closed on Sunday are the exceptional rather than the rule. It is somebody's business to see that the liquor laws are strictly enforced, and yet they are the most openly violated of all the laws on the books.

Coal Trade Picking Up.

That the mines shipping coal over the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg railroad from that district are picking up considerably is evident from the fact that the long line of coke ovens at Walston have been partially fired during and since Saturday, says the Punxsutawney Spirit.

It may not generally known but it is a fact that coke ovens will retain heat from three to five months sufficient to start them going without rebuilding fires. About thirteen weeks ago the western string of coke ovens (the longest in the world) at Walston, was put out of commission. They were banked, that is, filled with coal and hermetically sealed up.

Saturday 100 of them were opened and made ready for operation. None of the ovens had burned out, as much as 17 inches of marketable coke being drawn from the bottoms. When the coke was removed the ovens were filled with a fresh supply and so intense was the heat that the mass ignited and the process of coking was resumed the same as if the ovens had never been out of commission.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Steel Trade to Boom.

It was announced at Pittsburg on Tuesday that the United States Steel Corporation expected that by July 15 or August 1 there would be in Pittsburg district the greatest boom in iron and steel making ever known. Orders reached Pittsburg Tuesday which were transmitted to the superintendents and other officials in the Carnegie Steel Company. They were briefly that those who intended taking vacation should do so at once; that after August 1 there would be no time for vacations. Another solid train of bridge material for a new coast railroad left Pittsburg Wednesday night, and investigation shows that within the last two or three weeks 150 cars of bridge work have been sent to the West. The structural mills are working overtime to keep up with railway construction of the far West.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

STRONG Again

is what Mrs. Lucy Stovall, of Tilton, Ga., said after taking Kodol for Dyspepsia. Hundreds of other weak women are being restored to perfect health by this remedy. YOU may be well if you will take it.

Indigestion causes nearly all the sickness that women have. It deprives the system of nourishment and the delicate organs peculiar to women suffer—weaken, and become diseased.

Kodol For Dyspepsia

enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that may be eaten. It nourishes the body, and rebuilds the weak organs, restoring health and strength. Kodol relieves indigestion, constipation, dyspepsia, sour risings, belching, heartburn and all stomach disorders.

Digests What You Eat

Relieves indigestion, sour stomach, belching, etc. Prepared at the laboratory of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, U.S.A.

WANTED—BY CHICAGO MANUFACTURING HOUSE,—person of trustworthiness and somewhat familiar with local territory as assistant in branch office. Salary $18 paid weekly. Permanent position. No investment required. Business established. Previous experience not essential; engaging. Address, Manager, 523 Dearborn St, Chicago.

If a cough once gets into your system it acts on every muscle and fibre of the body and makes you ache all over. It especially affects the intestines and makes you constipated, so in order to get rid of a cold thoroughly and without delay you should not take anything that will tend to constipate. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup acts upon the bowels and thereby drives the cold out of the system. It contains no opiate—it is pleasant to take and is highly recommended for children. Sold by Green's Pharmacy.

THE WOMAN WHO COUGHED.

Catarrh had nearly ruined me. It had eaten away the partition in my nose; produced Asthma, Bronchitis, Rheumatism; ruined my stomach; in fact, gone all through my system. Then Grip finished me. I was a wreck; took cold at nothing; and coughed day and night. The doctors dosed me with opium and quinine. No good. Cough 'cures'? Bah! Then Brazilian Balm renovated me. Killed every germ. Took 10 $1.00 bottles. Now I'm like a girl of 18. MISS L. L. CLARK, Indianapolis.

CONGRESS proposes to adjourn on May 23. Well, its about time for them to skidoo.

STRONG as is the Roosevelt sentiment it is believed that he is resolute enough to resist it.

THE "favorit sons" show a marked ambition to stay in field until the Chicago convention meets.

GOVERNOR Hughes refuses to run for Vice President with an emphasis that he means what he says.

WHILE the alienists are disagreeing as to the sanity or insanity of Harry K. Thaw the public remains of one mind.

FOREST protection is now taking a strong hold upon the country and the time is fast approaching when it will be favored by all.

AFTER all that has been said about Bryan and Johnson riding on the same train, no one will venture to predict that they will try to travel on the same ticket.

THE Methodist General conference may not modify the discipline of the church regarding amusements but many adherents of the faith have already modified it for themselves.

As usual the graduating classes of the high schools this spring are composed principally of girls. The habit of boys quitting the public schools before their studies are completed is altogether too common.

IT is hoped that some of the suggestions at the governors' conference in Washington will take definite form and we shall expect some real progress toward actual conservation of the country's natural resources.

THE idea of manufacturing black paper and printing with white ink may be a step toward the conservation of our forests and will be a greater blow at the "white" paper trust than a reduction of the tariff on pulp woods and pulp.

THE supporters of Lewis Emery for delegate to the Repulican National convention from the twenty-first district are looking about for someone to kick them. It is now clearly seen that Col. Reynolds was the man to be honored as a delegate the convention.

SERIOUSLY, there is some reason to believe that the American political arena has seldom witnessed a more melancholy spectacle than that now presented by Senator Jeffreys Davis, of Arkansas. He floated for a time upon the topmost wave of popularity. Everything went his way. His election to the senate was the accomplishment of his highest ambition. But it was the beginning of his downfall. He has never been the same man. His oratorical efforts excite the amusement of the country and the ridicule of the senate. Even at home he has lost his prestige. His democratic worshipers are beginning to regard him with suspicion and his influence is rapidly disappearing. It is another illustration of what happens to a square peg once it gets in a round hole.

COUNT THE COST.

Farmers and others who travel the public roads of this county should count the cost of roads. The road over which even light loads cannot be hauled without trying the strength of horses and causing serious wear and tear to wagons is dear at any price. The farmer who is necessitated to use four horses in hauling a wagon load of produce to market where two horses ought to be able to pull the wagon understands the difference between good and bad roads. The extra cost of hauling over bad roads would pay for improving many miles of highway.

Through the efforts of the Lycoming County Good Roads association many of the roads in this county have been greatly improved in the past two months. The introduction of the split log road drag has enabled farmers and others to transform many bad roads into passable thoroughfares at a minimum of cost. The spirit of road improvement has been aroused in all parts of the county, and this sprit should be encouraged until there shall not be a bad road within the limits of Lycoming county. The cost of dragging the roads is so small that there is no excuse for any farmer refusing to use this road improver.

Lycoming county has made rapid and substantial strides in the good roads movement, but the work should not be allowed to lag. Every opportunity which the weather will afford should be seized to use the road drag. Farmers will find the resultant benefits so great that they will rejoice that such a simple but effectual method has been found to emancipate them from bad roads. A few dollars and a little labor will make good roads and the saving to horses and wagons will more than repay the effort to make the roads of the country districts as good as the streets of a city.—Williamsport News.

MEMORIAL DAY.

The announcement has come from the Grand Army of the Republic, but not unexpected, that on May 30th coming will be their last time to march to the cemeteries for the purpose of decorating the graves of the comrades who have gone before. In many places the ranks of the G. A. R. have become so thinned and the surviving members so aged that the work and marching is too hard for them. The time has arrived when this work must be taken up by others and the successors for the observance of this day so dear to the hearts of the veterans can not take hold too soon. In many places the work of Memorial day is given over to the Sons of Veterans, to whom rightly belongs the duty of keeping green the memory of their sires. Other patriotic and civic orders are lending a hand in keeping this day sacred to the memory of the honored dead. No more fitting public recognition of the Grand Army boys could be given than for all organizations, public and Sunday school scholars to turn out to a person with the brave boys who served their country so faithfully.

THE friends of Cashier Montgomery, who embezzled over a million dollars from the Pittsburg bank, say it the criminal had been given time he would have made the loss good. At any rate, the commonwealth may give Montgomery all the time the law allows to reflect on his misdeed.

RUMOR says that President Roosevelt may be asked to use his good offices to prevent an increase in freight rates. The whole country would be very glad to see a continuance of present rates, or even a reduction, but it may be questioned whether it is a good thing even for the president of the United States to interfer with the private business affairs except in an emergency involving the peace of the country and the happiness of large numbers of the people.

HER MAY MORNING.

By CECILY ALLEN.

Copyrighted, 1908, by Associated Literary Press.

The world said Eleanor Carey would never marry again. Her first matrimonial experience had not been strewn with roses, though money for their purchase had not been lacking. And the events of her widowhood had been enough to turn any woman hard, cynical and unromantic.

Not that Eleanor Carey looked either hard or imbittered as she presided over Mrs. De Witt Smith's tea table one balmy April afternoon. Robed in soft, clinging topaz colored silk, with heavy incrustations of lace—the famed Carey laces—she looked not a day older than the daughter of the household who was that day making her social debut. And, indeed, in point of years the fair debutante had little advantage over the fairer widow whose coming out had been followed almost directly by her marriage with Henry Carey, retired broker, multimillionaire and confirmed bachelor.

Younger men had envied the fishy eyed groom. Older women had envied the radiant bride who rumor said had acquiesced smilingly in her bold sale in the matrimonial market.

That she had paid the price of family honor and her father's good name with outward calm and inward revulsion was something Dame Grundy never guessed.

Her reward came sooner than she had dared to hope. Henry Carey died within a year of their marriage, and, then came what rumor said was enough to harden any woman. Ghosts of Carey's ugly past trouped forth after the reading of the will. His first cousin, apparently well started on his elder relative's downward path, first laid siege to the widow's heart and, being repulsed, then started the contest which had made Eleanor's face familiar to every newspaper reader in America and arraigned the dead man in all the baldness of money drunk eccentricities.

That any woman could believe in any man after going through what Eleanor Carey had gone through was past even the belief of her own somewhat cynical social set.

So far Eleanor's attorneys had held out against the siege for the millions left entirely to her. So far Eleanor Carey had never been interviewed by either public reporter or private friend. She had simply resumed her place in society after laying aside her mourning and let the legal and social tongues wag.

"MY DEAR LITTLE SWEETHEART OF LONG AGO," IT RAN.

So it happened that three men who had come to pay their respects to Mrs. De Witt Smith and her youngest daughter lingered to play court to the presiding genius at the tea table.

One of these was Dr. Dalton, a man who had won his spurs in the world of medicine despite a large family fortune and assured social position.

The second, Jimmy Darnton, was a newly made copper king from the northwest, whose family, well known in the eastern social whirl, had sent him west to be forgotten as the family ne'er-do-well and were now only too glad to remember him and receive him with open arms.

Neither of these men could be accused of caring how Henry Carey's fortune was finally disposed of.

The third man was Donald Gregory, born of a stern Scotch father and a mercurial French mother in the storm locked New England town where Eleanor Carey had lived in her girlhood. In his father's eyes the young chap had wasted what should have been a useful youth.

Today the stern old father unfortunately was not alive to witness the artistic triumphs of his son, but the mercurial little mother was waiting to welcome him in the New England town. He would have joined her days before but for having met Eleanor Carey the very day of his arrival in New York from Paris.

Bowed to each of these three men Eleanor Carey had given the same recognition quietly and unemotionally as she had bowed the extra lump of sugar on the saucer beside their cup of tea.

"I am going to Craigmere the first of the month. If it is for the best, I will send for you to come there."

All the world seemed a-moving the morning of May 1. Worried middle class housewives wrangled with impertinent van and storage men, and humbler families carried their belongings or shoved them from old homes to new in a borrowed pushcart.

Eleanor Carey's town house was as serene as if the entire establishment, retinue of servants, canaries, Angora kittens, mistress and all were not to be removed that very afternoon to Craigmere.

The mistress of the menage, in billowy masses of lace, awaited her morning mail and her coffee. When the latter had been served the maid reentered the room laden with letters and parcels.

There were violets and lilies of the valley from Dr. Dalton, a corsage bouquet large enough to hide the front of Mrs. Carey's traveling coat. From Jimmy Darnton there ware pink roses, long stemmed, perfectly tinted and crystalline with dew showered by the florist's rubber sprayer. There were bulky envelopes from her lawyers and doffodils from a girlish admirer. There were whines from individual mendicants and carefully phrased appeals from charity organizations.

And, last, the maid, with a correctly blank expression on her face, handed her mistress a curious floral offering, a basket made of soft willow twigs interwoven and lined with damp moss, which overflowed with the most commonplace flowers—violets with only a faint woodland odor, a few sprigs of late arbutus, many, many faintly tinted hepaticas and some dainty Quaker ladies. Silently she sat fingering the fragile blossoms while her deft fingered maid arranged the pink roses and the hothouse violets. At last, with a long drawn sigh, Eleanor Carey opened the envelope tied to the May basket by a blade of stout grass.

"My dear little sweetheart of long ago," it ran, "do you suppose for one instant that I intend to wait for you to bid me come to Craigmere? I will be there to bid you welcome—not on the stately terrace of your Italian villa, but down in the woods where I gathered these. And, what is more, I want you to come to me with clean hands and—an empty purse. Send for your lawyers. Tell them to take what they want and give the rest to the hounds who are fighting you. Turn your back on it all—the ghastly skeletons of the past, the scandal, the publicity, the bitterness of it all. You have never had a happy day since your purse was lined with his gold. Come, love; 'tis May day, and the world is still young for you and me. Be the queen of my May today and for every May day to come. I am waiting."

For almost an hour Eleanor Carey sat there, the spring blossoms fading under her hot clasped hands. Her breakfast turned cold. Her maid slipped in and out of the room, silent and apparently unobserving. Then her mistress turned to her suddenly.

"Adeline, call my lawyers; you know the number. —— Broad. Tell Jenkins we will take the 1:45 instead of the 3:10 train for Craigmere. That is all."

At 4 o'clock that afternoon Donald Gregory waited on a moss grown log in the wood adjoining Craigmere. All around him bloomed the unfragrant, exquisitely tinted wild flowers, while dogwood petals fell in a snowy shower on thick moss and modest blooms alike. His Parisian friends would hardly recognize him. Gone was the Vandyck beard, gone the shabby corduroys, the flowing tie. In their stead Gregory was clean shaven as in the old days when he had made and filled Eleanor's May basket year after year. For the corduroys he wore a light gray suit, a soft madras outing shirt, a soft gray silk tie. He looked the boyish lover, not the successful artist.

And toward him, treading the pathway among the dogwood petals, came the lady of his heart, clad in a simple frock of blue and white wash stuff and a low flat hat wreathed with flowers. She held out her hands. He took them and the smiling woman to his heart.

"Dear girl," he murmured in her ear "it is good to be young in May."

And the woman raised her eyes to his, eyes from which had passed every trace of bitterness and anxiety and disappointment, as she answered steadfastly, "Yes, Donald; it is good!"

Old Occupations.

We are apt to forget perhaps how many strange sounding occupations have now become obsolete. One has only to glance down Stow's list of old city companies to wonder what in the world are inholders, upholders, curriers, foystars, lorimars, patenmakers, yet they were important enough in Elizabeth's time, though they varied in importance, inholders being allowed two messes at the lord mayor's feast and upholders only one mess. Hatband makers had no business with the outward insignia of mourning, but, in the words of an old chronicler, "were incorporated by King Charles I. in the year 1638, when rich hatbands were much worn; but, that fashion having been many years set aside, the business is now much reduced, there being few of that profession." So it is not only women who are responsible for that prime cause of unemployment—seasonal trades.—London Chronicle.

The Social Curse.

He—Don't you find it's going out so much rather fatiguing? She—Yes, and so confusing. By the way, is the Plunketts' dance tomorrow night or is this it that we're at now?—Women's Home Companion.

FAITHFUL HOUSEWIVES OF THE UNITED STATES

Send Grateful Tributes to Dr. Hartman For Benefits Received From Pe-ru-na.

MRS. D. C. NOLAN.

No More Throat Trouble.

Mrs. D. C. Nolan, Gem, Kas., writes: "I have no more throat trouble, thanks to Peruna. It is the only medicine I care to have. I always feel safe when I have it in the house.

"I have used Peruna for nine years and I ought to know about it. Peruna has helped me a great many times, and I shall praise it to every one of my friends."

Ever since Peruna was introduced to the public thirty years ago, the housewife has been an ever faithful friend to Peruna. She it is that has seen the practical benefits of the use of Peruna in the family.

When the baby has snuffles or cold she gives a few doses of Peruna, instead of filling the system with the doctor's drugs.

When the school children have coughs or colds she again resorts to Peruna.

When any member of the family is afflicted with catarrh, either in its acute form or chronic, Peruna is resorted to. In a large number of minor ailments she finds Peruna a never-failing remedy.

All this has won the confidence of the housewife in Peruna, which cannot be easily shaken by the statements of people who know nothing of Peruna, having never had any personal experience in its use.

Pe-ru-na Tablets.

Some people prefer to take tablets, rather than to take medicine in a fluid form. Such people can obtain Peruna tablets, which represent the medicinal ingredients of Peruna. Each tablet is equivalent to one average dose of Peruna.

Mrs. T. J. Ballard, Pryor Creek, Indian Territory, writes: "I keep free from my old stomach trouble, feel no catarrhal symptoms at all. I am able to do my work, eat and drink what I want, and am rejoiced to know that I found a sure cure in your valuable medicines."

MRS. AUGUSTA PAULINE OCHS.

Systemic Catarrh.

Mrs. Augusta Pauline Ochs, R. F. D. 2, North English, Iowa, writes: "I took Peruna over three years. I suffered from systemic catarrh and had pains in my right side so I could hardly do my housework.

"I am 66 years old, and am now doing all my housework. I am in the best of health, and cannot thank Dr. Hartman enough for his advice and medicine."

Dyspepsia and Constipation.

Mrs. John M. Stabler, Millersburg, Ind., writes: "I have been cured of a very bad case of catarrh of the stomach and constipation, and a complication of ailments that I have had for several years.

"I doctored with three doctors who did me not much good, so I quit doctoring. I bought a bottle of Peruna and commenced taking it. I found I was getting some better, but thought I was not doing as well as I might. So I wrote to Dr. Hartman to see what he thought about me. He gave me special directions and medical advice.

"To our astonishment I improved and am today a well woman and weigh as much as I ever did in my life.

"My old friends in Ohio, where we moved from about fifteen months ago, say when they see me, 'How well you look. I did not expect to see you ever look so well again.' I tell them I would not look so well if it had not been for Peruna.

"Peruna saved my life. I recommend Peruna wherever I am, and when any of our folks are sick I give them Peruna with success.

"I thank Dr. Hartman, and may he live many years more to go on with the good work. Tongue cannot express the gratitude that my husband, children and I owe to Dr. Hartman for the kindness he has shown toward me during my sickness.

"I want the public to know what Peruna and Dr. Hartman have done for me."

An astonishing number of families use Peruna continuously for the various petty ailments to which the family is liable.

MRS. J. M. STABLER.

"Strange Fire Before the Lord"

We clip the following from the New York Observer, an article contributed by Missioner Crittenden to that paper the oldest and most largely circulated Presbyterian weekly in the world.

In a recent Scripture Sunday-school lesson concerning the "offering of strange fire," there is a very apparent present day application. It was unitedly agreed by the members of our Bible class that all growing lads and young men, not yet reaching their mature manhood, habitually indulging in tobacco smoking are "offering strange fire before the Lord, which he commandeth not," thereby weakening their bodily vigor depleting their purse and gaining no benefit to their personage.

Not to speak now of the smoking habit of old men or laboring men of limited pleasures, it is beyond dispute that gentlemen (?) church members, given to this habit, should bear in mind that they are "offering strange fire before the Lord," especially as it is too often seen on God's Holy Day, in close proximity to the House of God, and God's people facing the fumes as they pass out from the Holy Sanctuary. The habit well nigh stifles all consideration for the comfort of others. In a trolley car the other day, a well-dressed young man took his seat ahead of us, smoking a cigar. Curling up his lips, displaying a double set of white ivories, mumbling his firebrand, the swift current of air drove the smoke and some ashes of his "strange fire" into our faces. Completely absorbed by his selfish pleasure, he had no thought for the comfort or discomfort of others.

As wisely suggested by a recent writer in The Observer, the time is now here for an unspoken protest against this needless, offensive and wastefully expensive indulgence by the fathers and well to do members of the church, and instead of "offering strange fire before the Lord," the money thus spent, with nothing to show for it, might be given in offerings to the Lord for the extension of his kingdom.

What the Jury Thought.

During a trial for assault in Melbourne a club, a rail, an ax handle, a knife and a shotgun were exhibited as the instruments with which the deed was done. It was also shown that the assaulted man defended himself with a scythe, a revolver, a pitchfork, a chisel, a hand saw and a dog. The jury decided that they'd have given a sovereign apiece to have seen the fight.

Insects Ruin Trees.

In order that the supply of wooden ties may not become exhausted the Pennsylvania railroad began about six years ago to plant out locust trees and since that time have planted about 1,855,000 trees on 2000 acres at various places in the state. While the locust is the most endurable wood that can be used for ties they failed to realize that it was the most liable to be attacked by borers and the result is that many of the young trees planted by the company have died from the effects of the borers working at the roots.

This locust borer is a striped yellow and black insect less than an inch long, but provided with such strong and sharp cutting jaws that it has no difficulty in making its ways through hard wood. The borer makes its home in the locust tree and often in large numbers, and attacks the tree as soon as it reaches the hard wood stage. The forester of the railroad company, who was formerly employed in the government service, has been trying to evolve some way of destroying the borers and has found that the planting of other trees among the locusts to be effective. The idea is to save time for the growth of the trees and also through their crowding to force the locusts to a higher growth, so that they can be cut as soon as possible. For this purpose 272,500 trees have been set out and the planting of the locust trees has been practically abandoned.

In the future planting operations of the Pennsylvania railroad such trees as the red oak, pin oak, chestnut, Scotch pine and European larch will be used according as they are best adapted to the land and location. The trees reach final cutting size in 30 to 40 years from time of planting.

Beats the House Cat.

A tip for whoever may be plagued with rats comes from H. H. Shain, manager of the United news stand at the local railroad station in Riverton, N. J. Shain was so bothered with the rodents that he set a trap the other day and caught a big fellow alive. Instead of killing it he sprinkled it with some of the powder used by the jokers. The rat began sneezing and in a few minutes had dislocated its neck, and Shain put it out of misery.

The next morning he continued the experiment in the rats' nests and soon had more than a dozen sneezing. In a short time the whole colony was seen making its way from the station.

Will Move to Bellefonte.

The Middletown, Pa., Press, says: "Dr. Sol Nissley and wife will move to Bellefonte, next Tuesday, Dr. Nissley is a graduate from the Univerity of Pennsylvania as a veterinary surgeon and has been very successful in all his practice in this community. We regret very much seeing him leave here; but he is looking for a larger field of usefulness and we bespeak for him abundant success with the Centre county people, to whom we most heartily recommend Dr. Nissley." The new veterinary has opened his office at the Palace livery and we wish him success as a citizen of Bellefonte.

Inviting "Piecemeal" Revision.

The discerning statesman who said "The tariff is no joke" evidently did not anticipate the humor of the present tariff situation in Congress. As one of the striking features of the campaign for honest schedules, we now have the seventh important industry of the country, the newspaper publishers, making a vigorous demand direct upon the House of Representatives for relief from what they are pleased to term "gross extortion to the grave detriment of their business prosperity." The demand of the publishers has been met by a counter charge on the part of certain congressional leaders that the "extortion" should be blamed upon the paper trust and not upon the tariff schedules. At the present writing both delegation and committe have gone into action, and it seems evident that the tariff as an economic issue will speedily become prominent.

The significant feature of this situation is that it points to what may be expected from attempts to secure piecemeal revision of the tariff. The campaign for free pulp is being eagerly watched by the great majority of manufacturers favoring tariff adjustment after a scientific and honest investigation by a non-political Tariff Commission.

It is easy to assume that any success secured by the newspaper publishers will give the signal for a similar campaign by other equally interested industries.

Piecemeal legislation is not desired by those advocating tariff reform. The National Association of Manufacturers favors revision only after a most careful investigation of tariff schedules by a commission competent to act. And the revision resulting from such an investigation should have as its foundation the true principle of protection for American labor and American capital.—American Industries for May.

Fond Memories of the Circus

If you have forgotten the joyous happiness of barefoot days and would briefly live over again the ardor and ecstacy that came with circus day, go and see the remarkable moving pictures of wild animals included in Lyman H. Howe's new program in Garman's opera house on Monday, May 25. The series includes not only strange animals seldom, if ever, seen with a circus, but also remarkable portraits of those so familiar with a circus that without them it would not be a circus. The splendid view of elephants shown, will revive fond memories of the long ago when perhaps you carried water for them. What a thirst they had! How you carried till you could hardly walk! Yet how proud and happy you were as you walked into the big tent holding out a red ticket that read "Admit One." You may again recall the smell of the sawdust, the thirst you had for the pink lemonade, and the sweet dreams you had that night after all was over. Then how you talked it over the next day with the other boys. While Mr. Howe's new program may revive these memories in you, another feature of it will give you a ride on the front of an automobile racing over curves and gradients at the rate of 80 miles an hour. Another picture—that of a big city fire—abounds in much that is dramatic. Still another—the siege and surrender of Casa Blanca in Morocco—is of great historic interest, while "Life in the French Navy," "Quaint Holland," "Wild Birds at Home," "A Hunt in the Arctic Regions," and numerous other scenes of a purely amusing nature make this one of the most thoroughly delightful attractions of the season.

Our School Laws.

The Wilkes-Barre Record says: Pennsylvania is in the lead in making provision for the support of popular education, but it has frequently been said that we are far from reaping the same proportion of results from outlay as in some of the less generous states. The legislature has paid out the money, but it has given very little attention to the framing of satisfactory laws for school government. The present commission has been created to go over the whole ground and remedy the defects. There will no doubt be some radical recommendations. They may meet with determined opposition. But the commission may be depended upon to embody in the report only what is recognized to be the sentiment of the most prominent educators. The findings will be awaited with much interest.

The girl is the mother of the woman just as "boy is the father of the man." The period when the womanly functions begin is one to be carefully watched and considered. Irregularity or derangeot at this time may be promptly met and cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. But neglected at this critical period may entail years of future suffering. "Favorite Prescription" acts directly upon the womanly organs giving them perfect vigor and abundant vitality It removes the obstructions of health and happiness, and delivers womanhood from the cruel bondage of "female weakness."

Well recognized authorities of all schools of medicine have nothing but praise for the ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce at Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet giving ingredients and what medical authorities say about them. Not a patent medicine but a "Favorite Prescription" of Dr. Pierce—who makes the diseases of women his specialty. It has forty years of cures back of it.

Are You a Patriot?

Every patriotic American needs an American flag for his home. Particularly now that Decoration Day and Fourth of July are near at hand. We advise our readers to take advantage of an exceptional offer made by The Philadelphia Press, a beautiful hand-sewed American flag, size 3 by 5 feet, guaranteed fast to sun and rain, worth $2,00 and the daily edition of The Philadelphia Press, worth $3.00, both worth $5.00, and to any person taking advantage of this offer for $3.50. A good new forty-six star flag almost free. Do it today, tomorrow may be too late. Postmasters and newsdealers everywhere will receive your order. Your money will be returned for the asking, if you are not satisfied with the flag. Be patriotic.

Will Fight For Property.

J. H. Bierly, of Sabinsville, is preparing to make a fight for $350,000 worth of property in DuBois, Pa., as discovery of an old deed, he says, will dispossess the present occupants of the property. Twenty-one years ago Bierley and his wife were residents of DuBois and well-to-do. Because of his impaired physical condition his wife transacted all the business. In the memorable fire of 20 years ago, when DuBois was almost wiped off the map, the Bierleys lost all their buildings, a fortune of $300,000 being swept away. Almost heart-broken they left DuBois and went to Austin, where a short time afterward they gave up their holdings in DuBois as security for a $35,000 loan. Bierley was under the impression that it was a sale. Sixteen years ago Mrs. Bierley, who always had charge of the papers, died suddenly.

The other day, Bierley, in rummaging about an old trunk, chanced to find a secret compartment. In it was the deed to all the DuBois property and a paper showing that the $35,000 indebtedness was but a loan. The property is now estimated to be worth $350,000. Among the properties is one of the largest hotels of the town. Mr. Bierley has placed the matter in the hands of counsel.

TRIBUTE TO SENATOR KNOX

Given by Nicholas Longworth at a Recent Dinner in Pittsburg

A GRACEFUL SPEECH

The Son-in-law of Peesident Roosevelt Expresses the Opinion of Many Pennsylvanians on This Occasion.

WAS APPRECIATED BY HIS FRIENDS

Washington, May 16.—At a dinner given recently in Pittsburgh by the Americus Republican Club, Representative Nicholas Longworth, of Ohio, son-in-law of President Roosevelt, paid a high tribute to Senator Knox. It was a graceful compliment and was appreciated by Senator Knox friends in his home city. Mr. Longworth said:

"I have often been in Pittsburgh before and have often met Senator Knox, but never before in happy combination. This is the first time that I have met the Douglass on his native heath, and, like the Douglass, he is indeed a leader, not made so by manipulation or the luck of politics, but by his commanding intellect and ability and by the admiration and respect in which he is held by the people of Pennsylvania. Senator Knox is a modest man, and I shall not, therefore, say all that I should like to say about him, but I do want to say at least this, that he is one of the most incisive and convincing speakers and one of the ablest—in my judgment the ablest lawyer in public life in this country, and withal a man who looks at every great public question not from the standpoint of a lawyer, but first and above all from the standpoint of a statesman. His great legal learning does not dominate his statesmanship, but goes hand in hand with it.

"I think that I have read every speech that Senator Knox has made in the senate, and I have read many of his addresses and legal arguments delivered elsewhere, and I can safely say that there is not one of them in which he has not contributed something to the store of human knowledge. He never opens his mouth without saying something that was well said and that ought to have been said.

"Of his career as attorney general I shall only say that he it was who raised up the acts against trusts and monopolies from the state of inocuous desuetude in which they had lain during the administration of Grover Cleveland and made them living and effective statutes.

"With such a man as Senator Knox as your fellow citizen it is right that he should be your favored candidate for president, just as it is right that we of Ohio, having William H. Taft as our leading citizen, should make him our favored candidate for president. Both are competent to serve their county in any capacity. Either one could with justice to himself say, as said the Greek philosopher in ancient time, 'If I were not Diogenes I would be Alexander.' 'If I were not Knox I would be Taft.' 'If I were not Taft I would be Knox.' Thus I think that nobody will disagree with me when I say that should Secretary Taft be nominated for president he will have no more ardent and earnest supporter than Senator Knox, just as I can say with equal truth that should Senator Knox, be nominated for president he would have no more ardent and enthusiastic supporter than Secretary Taft."

The True Mechanic.

After a man has worked in shops for ten or fifteen years there is a great desire for a change. Some want to go out on a farm, others think that the invention of something that can be patented will solve the problem, while others want to own and run a shop themselves. The latter is really the true mechanic, but not necessarily the man who will get out the most or even the best work while working for a boss, says Charles Henry in the Workers' Magazine. On the contrary, he will often be considered the lazy man by the foreman when the work is of an ever recurring character. Let, however, some difficulty arise in connection with a job or have some hard proposition to meet and he will always have a suggestion to offer that will help to solve the problem, while the ordinary man and the hustler will stand around helpless and often disinterested. He will have the elementary laws of mechanics and physics at his finger tips, will know enough of electricity to allow him to discourse upon the subject in an intelligent manner, and he will be well posted upon the mechanical progress of the day.

A Dressmaker of Yarmouth.

In the churchyard of Caister, close to Yarmouth, is the grave of the "quiet, little, gentle voiced dressmaker," of whom at her death in October, 1843, the then bishop of Norwich said, "I would canonize Sarah Martin if I could." Yarmouth reveres her to this day. A stained glass window has been placed to her memory in the parish church, where her prayer book is still preserved, while her journal is one of the treasures of the public library in the tollhouse. Underneath this building was the miserable dungeon which served as the borough prison, and it was to the amelioration of the lot of the wretched prisoners that Sarah Martin devoted her life. Earning a bare subsistence of fifteen pence a day by toiling from early morning till far on into the night, she yet managed to give up one day in the week to her labor of love. She died in poverty, but the result of her life's work was the reform of the prison system of Yarmouth.—London Chronicle.

Burned It Into Memory.

One of the most characteristically eccentric things ever done by Gelett Burgess (and one of the few true stories of him) was to spend three or four days in constructing of cardboard, mica and green velvet a little model of an old New England house, complete as to windows, curtains, lawn, garden, trees and even including a hammock with a tiny hat and summer novel and washing stretched out on a clothesline on the back stoop. This was for a dinner given to several literary friends in New York, and when the coffee was served he deliberately set fire to the whole farm. His explanation was that had it been spared his guests might have forgotten the affair, but they would always remember the destruction of the house. No one who ever saw the little house go up in smoke on its little hill of damp moss will ever forget it.

The Misplaced Comma.

"Some lawsuits of the highest importance have hinged upon the right placing of a comma," said a judge.

"When I first started to practice law a Missouri editor came to me in a peck of trouble to defend him against a threatened libel suit growing out of faulty punctuation. He had not meant to give some innocent young women the slightest offense when he wrote a story about 'two young men who went with their girls to attend a lecture and after they left, the girls got drunk.' Putting that miserable little comma out of its right place did the work, as it made the girls the ones who became inebriated instead of their escorts. I managed by proper diplomacy and the publication of a neat apology to stave off the damage suits, and afterward my editorial friend became an expert on punctuation."—Baltimore American.

Taunting.

Old Noah hunted up a barrel stave and started off for the stern of the ark.

"Where are you going?" asked Mrs. Noah.

"I am going to whale that boy Ham," replied Noah, with a frown.

"But, my dear, the lad is only playing on his banjo."

"Yes, but it is the tune he is playing."

"And what is the tune?"

"'Wait Till the Sun Shines, Lizzie.'"—Chicago News.

Angry Adjectives.

It was not a young woman novelist, but Charles Sumner, of whom the late E. L. Godkin, the New York editor, said:

He works his adjectives so hard that if they ever catch him alone they will murder him.

Very Steady.

Farmer Haye—That Jones boy that used to work for you wants me to give him a job. Is he steady? Farmer Seede—Well, if he was any steadier he'd be motionless.—London Express.

Poor Jack.

Clara—Jack intends to have all his own way when we are married. Clara's Mamma—Then why do you want to marry him? Clara—To relieve his mind of a false impression.

American Woman In German Eyes.

American girls, whether born or merely brought up in America, evidence the same independence of judgment and the same complete self reliance. It is hard to say whether this is the result of the education in the public schools and colleges or in their freedom from that condition of legal and social subserviency to which the gentler sex is doomed in older countries.—Max von Brandt in Berlin Deutsche Revue.

Quite a "Character."

Here is a "character" given to a servant on leaving her last situation: "The bearer has been in my house a year, less eleven months. During this time she has shown herself diligent at the house door, frugal in work, mindful of herself, prompt in excuses and honest when everything was out of the way."—London Tit-Bits.

Awed Into Humility.

Man for man, if not woman for woman, the humility and terror of Americans in the presence of English people of their own class or above it is, with whatever care disguised, a pathetic thing.—London Outlook.

A Little Too Far.

"There is such a thing as overdoing your part," declared a man of the law who now has the knowledge gained by much experience.

"Shortly after I began practice in the west I was called upon to defend a man who had drawn a revolver on another and threatened to kill him. The accused did not have a character above reproach, but the prosecuting witness was also shady in reputation and I made the most of this fact. I pictured him as a desperado of the most dangerous type, a man that was a constant menace to the community and one who would recognize no other law than that of force. Such men as he, I insisted, made necessary the organization of vigilance committees and injured the fair name of the west among the older communities of the country.

"The jury returned a verdict of guilty and my man was sentenced to a year's imprisonment. As soon as court adjourned the foreman of the jury came to me and said: 'Young feller you spread it on too thick. After that there rip snortin' speech of yourn we couldn't do nothin' else 'an what we done.'

"'I don't understand you, sir.'

"'You don't? Why, we found the durned gerloot guilty 'cause he didn't shoot.'"—Detroit Free Press.

To Clean Suede Gloves.

Put the gloves on the hands and then rub them with fuller's earth on a small brush. An old nail or tooth brush will do excellently. Some people use fuller's earth and powdered alum in equal quantities instead of the earth alone.

Just praise is only a debt, but flattery is a present.—French Proverb.

Women Who Think.

If you are a thinking woman, and you no doubt think you are, the following will make you think.

Just between you and me, is it not a significant fact that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only medicine for woman's peculiar ailments, the makers of which print a full list of its ingredients, attested under oath, on its bottle-wrappers?

Does this not mean something to you if you are a sufferer?

It means that you absolutely know what you are taking when you make use of this world-famed medicine.

It means that you absolutely know that you are not taking "booze" when using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, but a good, honest, square-deal medicine adapted to woman's delicate organization by an educated, trained and experienced specialist in woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments.

Are the above facts not of some importance to you?

Many thousands of America's most famous physicians prescribe Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription because they know just what its composition is—which cannot be said of any other medicine advertised for the cure of woman's special ailments.

It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

It has done this for many hundreds of thousands. What it has done for others it will no doubt do for you if you but give it a fair trial.

Don't be put off with some inferior substitute with no record of cures to recommend it. You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum in place of this tried and proven medicine of known composition.

THOUGHTFUL, INTELLIGENT WOMEN use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for many good reasons. It enables them to avoid the disagreeable questionings and abhorrent examinations generally deemed necessary by the family physician. It cures in the privacy of the home. If, however, you want the advice of a skilled specialist in woman's peculiar maladies, write or call upon Dr. R. V. Pierce at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's advice is given gratis. It costs you nothing, but may be worth much to you.

Next to obtaining Dr. Pierce's Personal advice, you will find his great book—The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book of over a thousand pages, copiously illustrated—offers many valuable suggestions to invalid women. It has been lately revised and brought up-to-date. Costs only 31 one-cent stamps for cloth bound, or 21 stamps in paper binding—just to cover cost of mailing only. Address as above.

Stop That Cold

To check early colds or Grippe with "Preventics" means sure defeat for Pneumonia. To stop a cold with Preventics is safer than to let it run and be obliged to cure it afterwards. To be sure, Preventics will cure even a deeply seated cold, but taken early—at the sneeze stage—they break, as head off those early colds. That's surely better. That's why they are called Preventics.

Preventics are little Candy Cold Cures. No Quinine, no physic, nothing sickening. Nice for the children—and thoroughly safe for. If you feel chilly, if you sneeze, if you sniff all over, think of Preventics. Promptness may save days of nasty nasal sickness. And don't forget your child, if there is feverishness, night or day. Herein probably lies Preventics' greatest efficiency. Sold in 5c boxes for the pocket, also in the boxes of 25 Preventics. Insist on your druggists giving you

BRIEF MENTION

Short Items of Local Interest Gathered By The Way Side

—The Hoy-Yearick reunion will be held this year at Hecla Park on Wednesday, June 17.

—Two Italians paid costs and fines amounting to $55.88 for killing a bear near Medix Run last Tuesday.

—The Pennsylvania Railroad pay car made its regular monthly trip over the Bald Eagle Valley division on Wednesday when the employes received their pay.

—Landlord W. L. Daggett has been improving slowly the past week and Wednesday afternoon was taken for an automobile ride by W. Harrison Walker.

—In a closely contested and evenly matched game at the new athletic grounds Wednesday afternoon the State College Scrubs defeated the Academy nine by a score of 6-5.

—While washing dishes Wednesday morning 14-year-old Fred Meyers broke a piece of china ware and cut his hand badly on one of the sharp edges. The wound was dressed at the office of Dr. Feidt.

—A number of the New York Central's engines that have been standing in the round houses at Jersey Shore and Avis are now being fired up and placed into service. At present this road is showing much activity.

—Prof. C. W. Larson, instructor in dairy husbandry at State College had an attack of appendicitis on Tuesday and on Wednesday went to Philadelphia to enter the Jefferson hospital for treatment and possibly an operation.

—Farmers are of the opinion that the recent cold spell did not hurt the fruit in this section and the prospects for large crops of cherries, peaches, plumbs, apples and other fruit are very good. They think the wind and the rain saved the day.

—A trip of cars jumped the track on Wednesday afternoon at the Prospect colliery at Midvale and disturbed the mine propping so that a cave-in occurred. Four men were caught beneath the fall of earth and rock and almost instantly killed.

—Lock Haven business men are now getting interested in baseball and a number of them have agreed to deposit $50 in the treasury to assit in the organization and get the movement under way and finance the club until it becomes self sustaining.

—Joe Barnes has resigned his position as driver of the Adams Express company's wagon to accept a position as solicitor and collector for the Bell Telephone company. Hasting Gates has been secured to drive the express wagon.

—William Jennings Bryan the leader of the Democratic party will be in Altoona on May 21st and will deliver one of his famous lectures in the Mishler theatre. The coming of this noted Nebrasken promises to be a noteworthy event to the people of Altoona and great preparations are being made to give him a hearty welcome at this time.

—J. D. Snoke & Son, of Clearfield have been awarded the contract for the construction of the new First National bank of Osceola. The new structure is to be built of buff brick, with Bedford, Indiana blue limestone trimmings and will occupy the site of the present bank building. A building just across the street will be used as a temporary home The old building was erected in 1875.

—The matter of deciding upon a permanent place of the residence of the bishop of the Harrisburg diocese was not touched upon at the convention at Lock Haven Wednesday. There had been much discussion as to whether it would be in Harrisburg or Williamsport. At present it will be optional with the bishop. The bishop's salary was increased from $4,000 to $4,500 a year, with $500 for a stenographer and $500 additional for traveling expenses.

—It is a mistaken idea to think that a man who has been accidentally killed cannot be moved from the spot until a corner has viewed the remains. An illustration of the serious consequences that may follow such an idea was afforded recently when a Montgomery man was driving alload of poles. The wagon upset and the driver was pinioned under the load. People who witnessed the accident thought that he was killed and thinking that he could not be moved until a coroner had viewed the remains allowed him to remain under the poles As it happened he was not killed when the wagon upset, but died from strangulation while the coroner was being summoned.

—While cleaning house on Thursday Mrs. James Wegley ruptured a blood vessel and is in a serious condition.

—On account of a slight indisposition Rev. William Laurie was prevented from holding his regular Sunday services at Howard.

—H. T. Washburn of Philipsburg, landed three trout measuring respectively 17, 16 and 14 inches on Spruce Creek one this week.

—Edward Owen is making some additions to his property in Bush Addition which will make his home much more cozy and convenient when completed.

—The Pennsylvania railroad employes on Monday donned their summer caps which being made of white instead of blue are quite attractive.

—The citizens of Clearfield have voted to increase the indebtedness of the boro to the extent of $45,000 for the purpose of erecting a new school building in West Clearfield.

—Lieut. Governor Robert C. Murphy has been chosen to present the name of Senator Philander C. Knox to the Republican National convention at Chicago on June 16.

—At the "kitchen shower" given by the Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church Thursday afternoon a large variety of articles for use in the culinary department were received.

—Drayman Jacob Barlett had an exciting runaway on Water and Willowbank streets Friday but fortunately got his frightened horses stopped before any damage was done to the team or wagon

—The agitation concerning the good roads in the state has taken hold of some of Philipsburg's enterprising citizens and the prospects are that that section of the county will have a good road association ere long.

—On Monday, May 25th the people of Bellefonte will have another opportunity of seeing the great Lyman J. Howe moving pictures which have been the attraction for thousands during the season.

—At a recent meeting of the State College boro council a resolution was adopted asking the county commissioners to petition the State Highway department for the construction of a state road through the borough.

—The moving picture shows in town are proving quite an attraction for the jurors and others who are in town on account of court and a great many of them attended these places of amusement on Monday evening.

—Rev. Richard S. Holmes, D. D. of New York city, preached a very able and eloquent sermon in the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning and again in evening he delivered a powerful discourse. Both services were well attended.

—The Bellefonte Giants, a baseball team composed of young colored men of Bellefonte on Monday afternoon defeated the Bellefonte Scrubs by the score of 7 to 4. There are some good players in the Scrub team but there must have been better ones in the team of Giants.

—And now comes the report of another raise in the price of meat, amounting to about 25cents per hundred pounds. The time of the year is fast approaching when people can get along with very little meat or none at all, which will have a tendency to bring this line of food within reach of the poor man again.

—On Thursday evening at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. James Carter (colored), Miss Ann Carter was married to Mr. Fred M. Thompson. The ceremony being performed by the Rev. Mr. Harrington, pastor of the Bellefonte A. M. E. church. Many useful and beautiful presents were received.

—Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. F. F. Morrison a daughter of John McGovern of this place. The death occurred in New York City on Saturday and the remains will be brought here for burial. Proper obituary and funeral notice will appear after the arrival of the body.

—Here is a chance to get Farm Journal for 1908, and all of 1909, 1910, 1011 and 1912, five years. We are making an especially attractive combination subscription to every subscriber who will pay one year in advance for the Bellefonte Republican. No better farm paper than the Farm Journal. Offer is limited. No time to lose now.

—The suit against the Pennsylvania railroad by E. E. Lawton and D. W. Coxe, for discriminations in connection with the latter's mining operations at Madera, came to a close at Harrisburg this week and the jury awarded Messrs. Lawton and Coxe damages to the amount of $34,814.60. Hon. P. E. Womelsdorf was an expert witness for the railroad company on the case.

—Sunday was a very warm and pleasant day and quite favorable to church goers as well as those who are inclined to Sunday afternoon walks. At both morning and evening services the churches were fell filled. In the afternoon many persons were down along Spring Creek to visit the gypsy camp while others went in search of honeysuckles and dogwood flowers, both of which are in bloom and abound in profusion in the woods about Bellefonte. Many nice large bouquets were brought home by the lovers of the beautiful flowers.

—The rains interfere with the corn planting and baseball but there hopes of a good hay crop.

—Lyman J. Howe's moving pictures will be given in the opera house on Monday May 25th.

Wanted—A good experienced drummer in the 5th Regiment bugle and drum corps. Apply to Toner A. Hugg, Milesburg, Pa. at once.

—The annual convention of the Sunday schools and Christian Endeavors affiliated with the United Evangelical church in Centre county convened at Centre Hall Tuesday evening. The sessions will last during Wednesday and Thursday.

—The Beech Creek Coal and Coke company's operations at Grass Flat and Peale, numbering eleven different mines which have been doing but very little of late have received orders to operate four days a week which is gratifying news to those who are employed there.

—Dr. Thomas C. VanTries has accepted an invitation to deliver his Recital in the Westfield, or Mt. Jackson, Presbyterian church, situated six miles from Newcastle, Lawrence Co., on May 29. He goes there on invitation of the Christian Endeavor Society. The Westfield is a large and flourishing congregation.

—The 39th annual convention of the Centre County Sunday School Association opens its sessions Tuesday afternoon in the Methodist Episcopal church at State College at 1.30 o'clock. The opening address was made by the Rev. C. C. Snavely of State College. Sessions were held Tuesday afternoon and evening and all day Wednesday and Wednesday night.

—Chemicals have been found in five of about 100 samples of beef juices and similar products and bouillons secured throughout the state by agents of the State Dairy and Food Division and it is probable that some suits will be instituted at an early day. The reports of the chemists on the samples have just been received at the office of Commissioner Fouse and show varying results.

—The 125th anniversary of the establishment of Dickinson college will be celbrated at Carlisle on June 7—10 and it is expected that the event will draw hundreds who are interested in the college. An elaborate program is being prepared and most of the leading colleges will be officially represented. President Reed has selected Ex-Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw as the principal orator for the occasion.

—Postmaster John McCamant of Tyrone and a party of friends came to Bellefonte on Sunday and were driven to Hecla park where they were entertained at the Nittany Rod and Gun Club house by Mr. McCamant. It is his custom to annually give an apple blossom party to his friends and at this time no effort was spared to make the occasion an enjoyable one while they were the guests of Mr. McCamant

—The incessant rains Tuesday evening to which was added a cloudburst did much damage in the vicinity of Hecla Park and Dunkles. The tracks of the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania were washed out for about 400 feet at Dunkles and no trains have been run today farther than Hecla. It is also stated that the park grounds were damaged to some extent and the farmers suffered heavily from the fields being washed.

—A number of Shamokin boys are about to form a band of mercy the purpose of which will be to protect animals and birds. The latter will be give special attention, as in the past years many nests have been robbed, while in many instances young birds have been carried away and left to die in cages and on the hillsides. The move is a commendable one and should be heartily supported by parents and elder members of the families.

—The Farm Journal is 31 years old, prints 50 tons of paper a month, is cut to fit every progressive farmer and villager. Don't you want this fine little paper? Very well, pay $1.25 for a year ahead for the Republican, and we will include in the subscription the Farm Journal to your address for the balance of 1908, and all of 1909, 1910, 1911 and 1912, five years—and it will get to you if alive and anywhere on this planet. This is the most interesting combination subscription offer ever made.

Baseball Notes.

Rain again marred the baseball games scheduled for Saturday and consequently only one game was played during the day and that was in the forenoon when the Beech Creek team of the Centre-Clinton league defeated the Snow Shoe team by the score of 5 to 2. The game was played at Snow Shoe and was quite interesting. The afternoon game was prevented on account of the rain. The Howard—Orvis game at Orvis and the Woolrich-Mill Hall game at Mill Hall were both postponed on account of the heavy rain in the afternoon.

The Bellefonte Academy team went to Huntingdon in the forenoon and had just started the game in the afternoon when rain set in and they had to quit. Only an inning apiece was played and neither side had scored a run. The postponed games will be played later in the season.

Proceedings of Special Court.

The specials sions of court this week were presided over by President Judge Ellis L. Orvis and Hon. Clinton Savage, of Sunbury. The following cases were disposed of:

James A. Davidson, guardian of Julia A. Shope, vs. James N. Shope, being an action of ejectment; continued.

Clyde Shuey vs. the Bellefonte Furnace Co., being an action for trespass to recover damages for injuries; settled.

Friends and children of Virginia Curtin as co-plaintiff vs. E. M. Huyett, A. R. McNitt, D. S. McNitt, being an action of trespass to recover damages; settled.

W. H. Fleming and L. E. Bates, trading as Fleming & Co. vs. James Davidson, being an action in replevin to recover a team of horses, continued at costs of plaintiff.

John Bowden and A. M. Northrup vs. the New York and Penns. Co. being an action in trespass, continued.

W. P. Humes, et. al. vs. Michael Hemmens, being an action in assumpsit; continued.

Mary H. Denlinger (now Holt) vs. administrators of etc. of J. H. Holt, deceased, vs. Edward Brown et al, a judgment against the defendants. Verdict in favor of the plaintiffs for $1809.99 together with an attorney's commission of $50.

Cyrus Brungart, Sheriff, vs. Mary S. Thomas and James Schofield. This action grows out of a controversy as to the title of personal property between Burdine Butler and Mary S. Thomas as to whether or not the title was in Mr. or Mrs. Thomas' name in which it was finally determined that the property was in Mrs. Thomas' name, but during the pendency of the litigation another writ was placed in the hands of the Sheriff and that officer directed to levy upon the property as the property of Mr. Thomas. By arrangement Mrs. Thomas gave her note with Mr. Schofield as surety, and the sheriff released the lien of his levy and the public sale proceeded. Subsequently an application was made to the court to open the judgment secured by this note on the ground the title of the property had been determined by the courts to be in Mrs. Thomas' name and not in Mr. Thomas' against whom the writ had been issued. Verdict in favor of the defendants.

A. Yetter vs. the Milroy Lumber Co., an action of replevin to recover two mules leased by the plaintiff to W. C. Kibe. Verdict in favor of the plaintiff for the mules as delivered by the Sheriff.

Mary S. Thomas vs. Burdine Butler, a feigned issue as to the title of the property mentioned in the above case. At the close of the testimony the Court directed a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

Death at Mill Hall.

John Brown, of Mill Hall, a brother of T. Clayton Brown of this place, died at the Clinton house Wednesday of apoplexy. He had not been feeling well for some time and on that evening went to bed about 9 30 o'clock. At 10 30 he stated to his wife that he had severe pains in the head and in a short time became unconscious. Dr. Painter was called and stated that the man was suffering with a stroke of apoplexy, and soon after he expired.

The deceased was born in this place about 47 years ago, but has been a resident of Mill Hall for the past 15 years. He was employed for some time at the axe factory and later as a cook for the construction crew on the N. Y. C. railroad. On the 15th of last February he went to the Clinton house at Mill Hall where he was employed as cook.

Surviving him are his wife, one son, Roy, of Hanover, one brother, T. Clayton Brown of this place, and one sister, Mrs. J. A. Fiedler of Williamsport.

The funeral was held at the Clinton hotel at ten o'clock Saturday morning and interment was made in the Cedar Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Emma Elbert.

The remains of Mrs. Emma Elbert, who died in Philadelphia at 1 30 a. m. Sunday were brough to Bellefonte Wednesday morning and the funeral was held Wednesday afternoon from the Lutheran church in charge of Rev. Barry. Interment was made in the Union cemetery.

Mrs. Elbert was born in Bellefonte and was aged 51 years. She had been ill about four months with cancer of the stomach. Surviving her are her mother Mrs. Katherine Hass, two sisters, Mrs. Richard Detling and Mollie Hass, and one brother, Robert Hass, all of Roopsburg.
